

An invitation to apply: Power UP! 2008

Oakland Schools Educational Technology Conference

Student Project Showcase

Presented by Learning Services, Technology Services and Special Education

Friday, April 11, 2008 • 8 AM - 3:30 PM

Overview:

A key component of Power Up! Oakland Schools Educational Technology Conference will be a Student Project Showcase. The showcase will give teachers and students the opportunity to present excellent examples of classroom projects where technology enhanced student learning with displays, computers and conversation. Oakland County teachers are encouraged to recruit student teams to showcase projects where technology has been used to enhance student learning.

Easy for Teachers:

- Simply fill out the online “Student Showcase Application” form by Wednesday, December 12, 2007.
- Find the application form on our website at www.oakland.k12.mi.us/studentshowcase.html or call Lynn Lieberman at 248.209.2027.
- Oakland Schools will notify you in late February, 2008 if you have been selected to participate. Selections of student teams will be made to maximize diversity regionally, in subject area and grade level.
- Teachers of selected student teams will receive a Participation Guide that will help in preparing for a meaningful experience.
- There will be two time slots available: 9:30 to 11:30 AM and 12:30 to 2:30 PM. (Set up times will be any time after 7:30 AM for the morning session and 11:45 for the afternoon session)

Fun for Students:

- Students will gain experience describing their work to a diverse and interested audience.
- Students will have the opportunity to interact with presenters, vendors representing numerous educational technology products, and other student presenters.

Good for the Community:

- Attendees will include educational professionals, students, parents and other members of the community.
- We can all benefit and learn from sharing effective uses of educational technology to enhance student learning.
